Federico Fellini and contemporary Italian cinema

PROF. MARA PERBELLINI

OVERVIEW

Area: Cultural Studies

Dates: 4 – 21 July (3 weeks)

Campus: Milan

Course Number: FS / CMS 310

Term: Summer School 2017

Credits: 6 ECTS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course will introduce students to the magic world of the “director superstar” Federico Fellini, who influenced the art of cinema all over the world.

Here’s a quotation from American director David Lynch, to give an example of how influential Fellini was to international directors: “If I had to choose films that represent, for me, examples of perfect filmmaking, the first would be 8 ½, for the way Federico Fellini managed to accomplish with film what mostly abstract painters do – namely, to communicate an emotion without ever saying anything in a direct manner, without ever explaining anything, just by a sort of sheer magic”.

After “meeting” the Master, students will discover the main trends and filmmakers in contemporary Italian cinema. Since cinema is a mirror to our world, students will learn a lot about contemporary Italian society through the seventh art.

COURSE CONTENTS

In the first part of the course, after an introduction to cinema language and Italian cinema, we will focus on Federico Fellini’s career, from his debut as screenwriter during Neorealism to the masterpieces of the ‘50s and ‘60s.

We will then explore the boundaries of contemporary Italian cinema with the most significant directors and their movies: Roberto Benigni, Gabriele Salvatores, Matteo Garrone and Paolo Sorrentino (who won for best film in a foreign language at the Academy Awards 2014).

BIO OF INSTRUCTOR

Mara Perbellini is a scriptwriter and story analyst for major film and TV production Companies. After her B.A. in Italian Literature and her Master's Degree in Screenwriting at the Università Cattolica of Milan, she began to write screenplays and work as a story analyst for Rai Fiction and Eagle Pictures. She also worked as assistant director on the TV-movie "Una famiglia per caso" for RAI 1.

She has had over twelve feature film stories and screenplays purchased or optioned, including the treatment of "Bugie e miracoli" for Academy Award Winner Producer Marina Cicogna. In addition to her screenplays, Mara has had a number of scripts produced for animated series, such as "The Lord of Shadows" and "Uffa che Pazienza!" (Rai 2, season 1 and 2, which earned the Pulcinella Award at Cartoons on the Bay 2008 as best TV series for children).

She also attended the Film School at the New York Film Academy, both in NYC and in LA. (at Universal Studios) and the London Academy of Radio, Film & TV: while there, she directed, wrote and edited 4 short films.

In 2006 Mara joined the Faculty of IES Abroad Milan, where she teaches History of Italian Cinema and filmmaking. In 2012 she joined the Faculty of Università Cattolica where she teaches creative storytelling with Prof. Provenzi. She's also tutoring Italian film students at Università Cattolica, both for the Screenwriting Master Program and the film-making summer course at the School of Visual Arts in NYC.

In 2009 she got an Award for best screenplay at the Fuggi International Family Film Festival with the film "Il sirenetto". After that she wrote several prime-time mini-series and series, such as "Distretto di polizia 8" (Canale 5), "Ci vediamo a Portofino" (Rai 1), "La vita che corre" (Rai 1), "Eleonora Duse" (Publispei) and "Ombre sulla neve" (Casanova Multimedia).

In 2013 she wrote 5 plays for "Decalogo parte prima" that premiered at the Spoleto "Festival dei due mondi". She's currently writing an epic historical film and working on other cinematic projects.
